

Preliminary program

OFF-SITE MEETING AT MUSEUM KAMPA, WERICH VILLA

25 August 2022, 09:00 – 17:00

<https://www.museumkampa.cz/en/>

Quieting down and reflecting in-depth

In times when the wheel of life seems to turn faster and faster, limiting the contact between humans to short-time and long-distance connection, we want to use the quietness of Werich Villa to discuss with those present some of the most essential ethical challenges of our time. The conversations will be afterwards transcribed and made available for other ICOM members in the form of small articles, summing up common reflections.

09:00: Getting to know each other over a cup of coffee, fresh fruit and some typical Czech dessert (štrůdl / koláčky)

09:30 – 09:45: Welcome by Jan Smetana, director of Museum Kampa

09:45 – 10:00: Welcome & overview of the day by Kathrin Pabst, Chair of IC Ethics

10:00 – 11:00: Presentation about crucial ethical dilemmas in the Czech Republic throughout the years, followed by discussions & reflections

11:00 – 12:00: Presentation of ethical challenges as presented by ICOM members in emails and video messages in advance (more information can be found here: <https://www.facebook.com/ICEthics>)

12:00 – 13:15: Lunch at Piknik Park//Restaurant & Live Music <https://www.piknikpark.cz/en/>

13:15 – 14:15: Guided tours through the two museums, two groups simultaneously. Options:

a) Guided tour – Werich Villa <https://www.werichovavila.cz/en/>

b) Guided Tour Museum Kampa <https://www.museumkampa.cz/en/>

14:15 – 14:30: Coffee break

14:30 – 15:30: Picking up the discussion from the morning session, in one large or several smaller groups, outside in the park
